

MULLER is the first globally acting industry and technology leader in tool making and automation technology for thin-wall plastic packaging. We are currently looking for highly trained people to join our dynamic team.

We are searching for our site in Fort Collins, CO, USA:

Production Support/Purchasing Manager

Responsibilities:

- Develop, leading and executing purchasing and operations support strategies
- Creation and tracking of key metrics to reduce expenses and track performance
- Creating and implementing strategies and vendor contracts with the most favorable vendors
- Perform cost and risk analysis for current and future contracts
- Consistent monitoring of deliveries to maintain the most effective performance of the operations manufacturing group
- Direct supervision and daily monitoring of buyers, stock room and receiving team members
- Continue and create new processes based on Lean concepts for inventory control as well as controlling and monitoring cycle counting processes
- Seek out new vendors and suppliers who will perform as partners, not only supplying goods but adding value to our organization
- Work closely daily with manufacturing supervisors. Assessing and developing plans to make certain key components are ready for production and on time delivery is not hindered

Requirements:

- Proven working experience in a manufacturing environment, specifically one that would be considered custom builds. Machining and assembly acumen are essential for this position. You will be asked to think divergently and find solutions that may seem unorthodox to a buyer with less mechanical aptitude or experience.
- Familiarity with negotiating pricing and utilizing available resources to ensure the organization realizes the best value possible.
- Ability and desire to be a servant leader, create a positive working environment and lead by example.

What can we offer you?

- Competitive compensation
- Generous time off to balance work/life
- Comprehensive benefits package
- Potential to travel to Switzerland and Missouri
- Continuing education opportunities
- Location in Fort Collins, CO offers an abundance of activities and entertainment
- A team culture willing to improve processes, work toward a common goal and support one another
