- Manage in-stock supplies (CBN)
- Analyze and optimize stock levels
- Enter and update information in the ERP system (SAP Business One)
- Monitor and manage any disputes with suppliers and carriers
- Prospect markets, select and validate suppliers
- Research, select and purchase quality products and materials based on our technical drawings
- Coordinate with the entire manufacturing team, inventory team, management and stock room as required

- Demonstrated experience of a minimum of three years in procurement within an industrial setting
- Proficiency in utilizing an ERP system, with specific emphasis on experience with SAP Business One
- Excellent proficiency in English at level C1, and a beneficial understanding of German and/or Italian is advantageous.
- Results orientation, negotiation skills, ability to analyze and summarize
- Analytical, numerical and strong problem-solving skills
- Critical entrepreneurial spirit and strong proactive negotiation skills

What can we offer you?

- An attractive role within an international group, in a cutting-edge technological environment
- Autonomous and responsible work within a young and dynamic team
- Efficient tools and work methods
- Social and salary benefits of a modern company

Required skills:

- Possession of a degree in purchasing and procurement, senior buyer qualifications, or an equivalent certification
